BANNER STEAL NEWS

There were 2 squares of turquoise and white Perkys at Buckaroos on February 12 for the banner steal. We danced to Dan Koft's calling and his wife Kathy's cueing. We asked the Buckaroos to come back to retrieve their banner on August 7 at our Special Dance with Ken Ritucci calling. With Perkys, always good dancing!

FIFTH GRADE DANCE

This year, Perky Promenaders again took part in the square dance portion of the physical education program for the 5th graders in Marlboro and Hereford grade schools. On January 8, we took 2 squares of dancers along with our caller Jay Haines to each school for a demo, where we showed the kids what they would be learning over the next 6 weeks. This year, for the first time, Jay asked the phys ed teachers to teach the students "Grand Square".

Then on February 19, we went back to Marlboro school. The two schools brought all their 5 th graders to the gym at Marlboro. 24 Perky Promenaders came along with Jay. There were 28 squares of students and Perkys (224 dancers) on the floor dancing.

There were also some extra students and Perkys to fill in when people needed a rest. The dance went very well. The students did a great job of dancing "Grand Square". And of course, there also were some line dances for the kids, including the grand finale Chicken Dance!

Many thanks to Jay Haines and the Perkys.
